THE DOUGLAS REGISTER [1]

The Reverend William Douglas came to Dover Church, St. James-Northam Parish in 1750. The Rev. Douglas said in the register that no record of St. James-Northam Parish had been kept before he took over the parish. He began to keep a record of marriages in 1753, but didn't start the register until 1756. He kept the register until his death in Feb. 1798. He also kept a record of births, baptisms and deaths. Dates in the register before 1750 would have been given to Douglas by the families in his parish.

Douglas said in the register that he was in charge of St. James-Northam Parish (Goochland Co.) for 27 years; Maniken town (King William Parish) for 19 years; and Buckingham County for 4 years. He moved to Louisa County in 1777 which would have been the end of his 27 years in Goochland Co. We don't know exactly when he was in charge of Maniken town or Buckingham Co.

The Martins in the register lived in Goochland, Albemarle, Louisa, Fluvanna, Cumberland counties and Maniken town. A few of the marriages performed by Douglas were also recorded at the courthouses of Cumberland, Goochland and Louisa counties.

When W. Mac Jones published The Douglas Register in 1928 he arranged the names in alphabetical order under baptisms, marriages and deaths. He also had a separate section where he listed marriages for brides and grooms based on the birth of the first child recorded in the baptism section. In this section were seven males and nine females named Martin. The dates entered by their names were merely a repeat of the date of their first child's birth recorded by Rev. Douglas.

Birth of first child baptized by Rev. Douglas for Martin females:

Southampton Co., VA - Marriages & Wills 1749-1800

Southampton county was formed in 1749 when Isle of Wight Co., VA was divided into two distinct counties. Everything east of the Blackwater River remained Isle of Wight Co. and everything west of the river to be Southampton Co. There is only one marriage recorded in Southampton Co. between 1750 and 1800. Lucy MARTIN married George GURLEY, Jr. 11 May 1786. The marriage bond said she was the dau. of James MARTIN. William THOMAS was security and Frances YOUNG, Jr. was witness.

John ONEY's will in Southampton made 1782 and proved 1788 named a dau. Lucy MARTIN.

Kinchen MARTIN, son of James and Amy, was a pensioned Revolutionary soldier. He said he was born 6 Jan. 1762, Southampton Co., VA and that his birth was recorded in his father's Bible. Kinchen married Chloe HOUGH about 1784.[6] Chloe MARTIN was the dau. of Hezekiah HOUGH, Sr. whose will was proved Oct. 1817, Anson Co., NC [5] Chloe b. 5 Oct. 1762.

Hezekiah HOUGH's will named wife Mary. Sons: James, John, William, Hezekiah and Moody HOUGH. Daus.: Chloe MARTIN, Mary MAY, Melly MASK, Nancy ROSS, Fanny KINDRED and Eliza. KNOX. Executors: sons, William and James. Witnesses: Wm. CARPENTER and James GARRIS.

James HOUGH's will made 25 May 1821 named (no relationship stated) Jas. MARTIN, John HOUGH, Hezekiah HOUGH, Hezekiah ROSS, Moody HOUGH, Fanny KINDRED, Chloe MARTIN, Nancy ROSS, James GARRIS, Wm. While Kinchen MARTIN who m. Chloe HOUGH was in Anson Co. NC from 1785 until his death there were Kinchen MARTINs in Northampton Co., NC from 1800 census until 1850. Northampton Co., NC borders Southampton Co. VA. In Northampton Kinchen MARTIN married Latitia and Sarah GARRIS in 1830 and a Kinchen MARTIN married Harriett GARRIS in 1841. In addition, Mary MARTIN m. Micajah GARRIS in 1827; Penny MARTIN m. Gideon GARRIS in 1836 and Amey MARTIN m. John Wesley GARRIS in 1837. Notice that James GARRIS was witness to Hezekiah HOUGH's will in Anson Co. in 1821. Hezekiah was Chloe MARTIN's father.

The Martin Family of Ohio

DESCENDANTS OF PETER MARTIN

SON OF CAVALIER MARTIN

The Martin Family of Ohio - Descendants of Peter Martin - son of Cavalier Martin. Edited by Louise Martin MOHLER, 1978. 194 pages. Indexed. 7 1/2" x 5 1/2", paper cover, saddle stitched. Available from Louise Martin MOHLER, 1098 Redstone Rd., Washington, PA 15301 for $8.00.

This family history was begun by Mrs. Mohler's father, Sumner L. MARTIN, who was born 30 Oct. 1887 and died 30 Nov. 1979. Mrs. Mohler has done an excellent job proving the descendants of Peter Martin, son of Cavalier.

Peter MARTIN was born ca. 1764 and died ca. 1837/40, Harrison Co., Ohio. The biography of Peter's son, Jonathan, in the history of Harrison Co. said Peter was born in New Jersey and grew to manhood there. The first deed found for Peter MARTIN is in 1774, Berkeley Co., Virginia. He and Peter were elders of the Shepherdstown, VA Presbyterian Church. When Jefferson Co., VA was formed from Berkeley Co. in 1802 Peter and Cavalier were then in Jefferson Co.

Peter MARTIN married 3 Nov. 1794 in Berkeley Co., VA to Elizabeth HEBERLING (EVERLINE), dau. of Andrew HEBERLING. In 1823 Peter and Elizabeth migrated to Harrison Co., Ohio with the CRUMLEY and LEWIS families.

The basis Mrs. Mohler used to find the descendants of Peter and Elizabeth

MARTIN should be an inspiration to all of us. Peter's son, Jonathan, never married and died in Harrison Co., Ohio in 1898. John's estate papers name all of his brothers, sister, nieces and nephews AND where they all lived in 1898. With this list of heirs in 1898 Mrs. Mohler has found almost all of the descendants down to 1978; 400 have been located since the publication of her book.

John, the brother of her ancestor, had George Albert MARTIN as his partner in business and his executor. The will of John said George was the son of Jonathan MARTIN, b. 1825. A cousin remembered that these Martins were distant cousins and their genealogy is well documented going back to John MARTIN of Dover, New Hampshire in the 1600's.

Dr. Donald J. MARTIN has shared his copies of the Personal Property Tax Lists of Berkeley and Jefferson Cos., VA. Cavalier MARTIN is in Berkeley Co. list most years from 1783 until 1801. He then is on the lists for Jefferson Co. from 1802 until 1811 when the lists end. Peter MARTIN, Sr. is in Berkeley Co. from 1783 until 1798; Peter, Jr. from 1791 until 1801. Jonathan MARTIN is in Berkeley Co. in 1783 and 1784, then is gone. Enoch MARTIN first appears in 1788 with father, Peter MARTIN. Enoch is there until 1801. Cavalier, Enoch, Peter, Jr. and Peter, Sr.-const. are living next door to each other in Berkeley Co. 1799-1801. The same four are living next door to each other in Jefferson Co. in 1802. Cavalier MARTIN probably had a brother named Peter and his father was Peter, Sr. who first appeared in the deeds of Berkeley Co. in 1774.

Peter MARTIN is on the tax lists through 1797. In 1798 through 1802, Jefferson Co., VA, Peter - const. - is listed without a male tithe. This must be Peter's widow. After 1802 this listing is gone and I think this is when Peter MARTIN, Sr.'s widow died.

Dr. Donald J. MARTIN has also shared research done for him by Mrs. Leslie E. GOOD of Front Royal, VA. This research was done in the deeds of Berkeley and Jefferson Cos., VA. The deeds don't prove how these people are related. In 1774 Peter MARTIN sold horse, wagon, etc. to Jacob DUNN. Witnesses: John TOOLE, Elizabeth MARTIN. The land in the 1786 and 1799 deeds had been leased to Giles COOK, Sr. and Jr. In 1786 Peter MARTIN to Enoch MARTIN land on Elk Branch, Berkeley Co. where Peter lived. Witness: Jonathan MARTIN, Peter MARTIN, Jr. & Abigail MARTIN. In 1799 Enoch MARTIN to Abraham EVERSOLE [Abraham EVERSOLE m. 10 July 1794, Berkeley Co. to Katherine MARTIN] "to give to Peter MARTIN, Sr. and Anne, his wife, a yearly rent of 10 bushels of wheat, etc." Witnesses: Chevalier MARTIN, Jonathan MARTIN, Betsy MARTIN and Peter MARTIN, Jr. In 1799 Enoch MARTIN to Peter and Jonathan MARTIN land on Elk Branch where they lived "to have and to hold during the lives of Giles COOK, Sr. and Jr. or during the life of Peter MARTIN and Anne, his wife, and the said Jonathan MARTIN and Elizabeth, his wife." Wit: Chevalier MARTIN, Abigail MARTIN, Catherine EVERSOLE & Samuel POLAND. The above deeds were in Berkeley Co. and Cavalier MARTIN had one deed in 1821, Jefferson Co. to William MARTIN. [More about this family in the next issue].

Editor's Note: Levi MARTIN married L. A. BURGISS in Dallas Co., TX on 10 Oct. 1871. This may be Thomas' brother. Memorial and Biographical History of Dallas Co., TX published in 1892 says that Annie ATTEBERRY who married Mr. MARTIN was living in Hood Co., TX in 1892. Thomas ATTEBERRY (Annie's grandfather) was born in SC and migrated to KY and then to Greene Co., IL in 1834. He then went to Macoupin Co., IL and d. in Macon Co., IL in 1875. Thomas m. Eliza. Searching for information on the ancestry of a maternal great grandfather, John MARTIN. John was b. 20 Aug. 1857, m. Martha Elizabeth PRATT, 15 June 1879, d. 12 April 1939. Martha was born 31 March 1862, d. 3 Nov. 1935. Of this union several children were born. Mr. TALLEY is the son of Maydell Hall TALLEY (Mrs. James W. TALLEY of Omaha, TX), a dau. of Joseph Claud HALL and Mattie Luella MARTIN. Mattie is a dau. of John MARTIN and lives in Baton Rouge, LA, but cannot identify her father's ancestors. John spoke little of his own family and mentioned that he was raised by another family and had a step brother named Tas. (John and Elizabeth named a son Tas). His residence was in Morris Co., TX near the Morris/Cass Co., TX line, about 4 miles northeast of Daingerfield, TX. John often said he was born in Texas and lived in that area all of his life. Surviving members of the CROSSLAND, WRIGHT and LEWIS families of Morris and Cass Counties have recollections from family discussions that they are related to John MARTIN, but do not know the exact manner. The following deed transaction may hold a key to the relation:
The State of Texas
Cass County
Know all men by these presents that we heirs of A. J. LEWIS decd of the County of Cass for in consideration of the fact that this property is the prate share of said Estate of our father and mother. Now therefore we the said heirs hereby relinquish all of our right and title to the following described land to wit: 70 acres of land lying in Cass County a portion of the E. B. KNIGHT _____ Also 50 of land a part of HUTCHISON and for more particular discription reference is hereby made to a deed from M. L. HIGENBOTHAM and wife to A. J. LEWIS dated December 18th 1869 and of Record in the Morris in the Notary Public Office by J. A. HUM. To have and to hold unto her the said Margaret LEWIS her assigns forever in fee simple. Witness our hands this 12th of Oct. A.D. 1887. J. W. LEWIS, G. R. T. LEWIS, M. L. CROSSLAND, S. H. LEWIS, John MARTIN, D. C. LEWIS, N. WRIGHT, E. T. WRIGHT, M. M. COFFEY, W. M. COFFEY, W. M. STRINGFELLOW, N. L. STRINGFELLOW, W. A. J. LEWIS. (end of deed)
It is believed that N. WRIGHT is Nathaniel WRIGHT, a pioneer of Morris County and E. T. WRIGHT is his wife, a LEWIS dau. N. L. STRINGFELLOW is the wife of W. M. STRINGFELLOW and probably a LEWIS dau. W. M. COFFEY is probably the wife of M. M. COFFEY. M. L. CROSSLAND is probably Mary LEWIS, a LEWIS dau. John MARTIN is possibly either the grandson of A. J. LEWIS or a stepson. Anyone who can shed light on the ancestry of John MARTIN is encouraged to share that information with
